SCENARIO: 'A cultural understanding'

Mariam Tahir, now a data analyst, previously employed her cultural sensitivity and dedication to diversity as a primary school teacher in a varied community in West London. Translating her experiences, Mariam infuses cultural awareness into her data analysis work. Leveraging her Somali Muslim background, Mariam ensures data insights encapsulate the community's diversity, actively engaging with stakeholders to incorporate varied perspectives. Her approach exemplifies how data analysis can serve as a catalyst for fostering cultural understanding and inclusivity within diverse contexts.

FEARS

2030 - PRESENT

- Mariam Tahir, despite her vibrant interests and adventurous spirit, harbors a subtle fear of stagnation and routine. The idea of being confined to a monotonous or predictable lifestyle unsettles her. Mariam fears missing out on new experiences and growth, both personally and professionally.

GOAL/ASPIRATION

2025 - 2029

- Mariam Tahir, data analyst with a profound commitment to cultural understanding and inclusivity, aspires to utilise her analytical skills to foster a global appreciation for diverse cultures. Drawing inspiration from her experiences navigating culture diversity in her community and workplace, Mariam envisions leveraging population demographic analysis to promote cross-cultural empathy and understanding a broader scale.

2024 - 2025

Hobbies/Interests

- Mariam Tahir is a multifaceted individual who delights in capturing moments through photography, cultivating an urban garden, and organizing vibrant book club discussions. Her culinary pursuits, love for hiking, and passion for DIY crafts showcase her diverse interests. Balancing an adventurous spirit with mindful practices, Mariam finds joy in both the creative and serene aspects of life..
